WELCOME

Welcome, ladies!

I'm so glad you decided to join us for Radiant Moms' Retreat 2023!

Our focus for this retreat is rest, renewal, and relationships. As homeschooling moms, we desperately need to invest in all three of these: rest to sustain us; renewal to remind us of our purpose; and relationships — with God and with like-minded others — to encourage us on the journey.

This weekend, please remember one important rule:

You are in charge of your retreat.

While you've been provided with an Itinerary of suggested activities and meals, you have an "excused absence" for anything you don't feel like doing. No one is taking attendance or doing bed checks. It's your weekend — spend it however you like!

However you choose to spend your time this weekend, my prayer is that Radiant Moms' Retreat will be a vital respite in your homeschooling journey this year.

If you have any questions, please feel free to message me through Band, or text me at (918) 284-3447.

Have a wonderful weekend!

*Abigail Prescott

HISTORY AND BISCUITS

Half an hour west of Rogers, scenic War Eagle Valley shelters the historic War Eagle Mill, a working gristmill with origins dating back to 1832. Pull up to the table at The Bean Palace, the in-mill restaurant, for an all-you-can-eat breakfast bar, or a lunch of beans and cornbread or other favorites.

PURE (CHOCOLATE) BLISS

Inspired by his experiences serving in Ugandan orphanages, owner Rick Boosey founded KYYA Chocolate to build relationships with farmers around the globe and pay above fair trade prices for cacao. KYYA (which takes its name from the Greek word for "pure") specializes in bear-to-bar, single-origin dark chocolate, but also makes cocoa powder and syrups in their shop, tucked away in the tiny hamlet of Elm Springs, west of Springdale.

GO ON A TREASURE HUNT

The village of Prairie Grove, located about 20 minutes southwest of Fayetteville, is most prominent for its Civil War Battlefield (now a State Park). Among locals, it is equally renowned for a cluster of charming and unique antique shops. In this vintage mecca, Daisies and Olives sets the tone for all other shops on Buchanan Street. Find a blend of the old and new, handmade goods, renewed furniture, and more as you peruse the selection of housewares, furniture, and more.

SPRINGDALE

Your favorite adventure of the weekend could be one detour away!

VISIT HOSPITALITY HQ

Stocked with a charming array of classic tableware, dreamy linens, heirloom cookware, seasonal decor, and food gifts, Euna Mae's is a must-see for anyone who loves to cook. Euna Mae's proprietress, Amy Nelson Hannon, is a pastor's wife and author of Love Welcome Serve: Recipes that Gather and Give, a cookbook devoted to Biblical hospitality. CLOSED SUNDAY.

HAVE A "MESSY" DAY

Don't miss this Springdale institution — right next door to Euna Mae's. MarketPlace Grill offers a casual, family-friendly atmosphere, and serves wide-ranging American fare with a Southern flair — including a gluten-free menu. For dessert, we recommend the "Chocolate Mess," a fudge sundae that more than lives up to its name.
